History and Genealogy of the Brubaker, Brubacher - Brewbaker

Family in America

p. 79
A distinct branch of the family had its origin with Michael Brubaker of New Holland, Pa. His last will and Testament made Feb. 4, 1747 and probated Mar. 19, 1747 is the earliest Brubaker will on record at the Lancaster County Courthouse. It definitely places him as a resident of "Earlstown." He probably came to the vicinity of New Holland with the Woffenderfer and other families in the year 1727. He was a wagon-maker by trade, lived on a small tract of land, and was in possession of two cows and five sheep. In his will he names the four children listed below. We have definite information on the sons, Conrad (F-3) and John (F-4). Conrad removed to Windsor Township, York County. We were able to contact but one of his offspring, therefore facts about him are meager.

Our listing of Isaac (F-6), Conrad (F-7), and Christian (F-8) may be incorrect. Isaac (F-6) and wife are buried in the New Holland Cemetery where many others of Michael's family are buried. From this we infer that he was of this family. A source which is in error at many points states that his ancestor in America was Jacob Brubaker. In view of what we discovered at New Holland we have discounted this being a son of Jacob. Christian (F-8) and wife Mary had property in New Holland. At the time of the 1790 Census there were two Conrad Brubakers, one in Earl Township, Lancaster County, and one in Windsor Twp. York County. On the basis of these facts we are inclined to feel that the three men in question should be placed as we have arranged them in the lists.

Mrs Victor Mutti

Fort Wayne, Indiana 46807

Dear Mrs Mutti:

Thank you very much for the kind letter we recently received from you. It is fine to hear that our information was of some help to you in tracing your families. We tried to find the right data and it appears we have succeeded, at least in part. Thank you for the praise.

We note you seek information on some of the church records as pertains to cemeteries. In the early and mid "thirties" some of our people made a detailed survey of all known cemeteries of York and Adams Counties, and took down notes of all data on all tombstones to be seen at that time. All that information has been put down on 3x5 cards, and is also available in a big series of books at our library, with all data from each cemetery being in a section by itself.

You ask whether it would pay you to search through these books for any mention of the graves of Conrad and Eva (Crone) Brubacher. We have done a search of these card files for those names and did not find them. We did find a Conrad Brubaker but his wife was Elizabeth. For your information, we show the information as follows:

In Yocumtown Church of God cemetery, Newberry Township, York County:

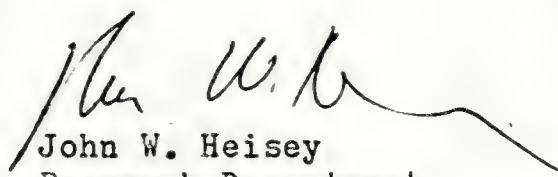

Conrad BRUBAKER, died 20 August 1875, aged 81 years, 11 months, 20 days

Elizabeth, wife of Conrad BRUBAKER, died 3 September 1861, aged 66 years,
6 months, 8 days

This, as we mentioned above, was the only reference to a Conrad Brubaker we found in the cemetery card file, which file is identical to the transcribed books we have on the cemetery records. Thus, it would not be worthwhile for you to check them for evidence of the name. As many of the early graves were marked with field stones, wooden stakes, or sometimes no markings at all, it is possible these two people rest in one of the many cemeteries of this area, or may have been buried in a family plot on their own ground, and by this late date, the plots have often disappeared.

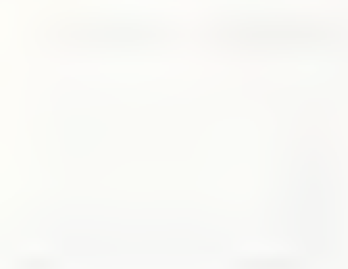

We are sorry we do not have the Brubaker information you seek, but have tried to explain why above. We do thank you for your letters and appreciate your comments on our information. If we may be of any further assistance to you, please let us know. We will do our best to find the information desired.

Sincerely yours,
